

By MELLIFLICIA.

Tuesday, February 24, 1914.

WHILE new weather and banks of snow prove to us that it is really winter time, the producing of spring flowers at all of the social affairs makes one think that it is spring.

In the windows of the different flower shops one may see dainty white lilies, violets, daffodils, jonquils, narcissus and sweet peas, and in the New York shops one sees huge bunches of apple blossoms, all of which are supposed to be forewarnings of spring.

Balloons were used in profusion at the Lowe-Harding wedding Monday evening.

The last day before Lent is filled with social affairs for visitors and brides-to-be, and spring flowers were used at all of these.

Mrs. Edward Creighton, who gave a luncheon today for Miss Hamilton of Britain, S. D., used a dainty decoration of pink sweet peas, rosebuds and narcissus.

Mrs. A. J. Lowe had a color scheme of green and white at her luncheon at the Omaha club for Miss Dickie. Narcissus and ferns predominated.

Mr. G. Stier gave a beautifully appointed luncheon and baskets of jonquils formed the table decoration in the dining room, and a variety of spring flowers were in the other rooms.

Miss Carolyn Backshaw entertained informally at bridge for Miss Dickie and Miss Taft, and used spring flowers.

Flowers are even taking a prominent part in the suffrage controversy. At the tea given last Friday by Mrs. E. M. Fairfield the suffrage color, yellow, was used in the appointments, and jonquils formed the table decorations.

Anti-suffrage colors were prominent at the meeting yesterday afternoon and at the luncheon given today by Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith. A large basket of American Beauty and white roses, tied with black tape, adorned the speakers' table.

Mrs. Edward Creighton entertained at one of the larger pre-Lenten affairs today when she gave a luncheon at her home in honor of Miss Marion Hamilton of Britain, S. D., guest of Mrs. George Hodder. The guests were seated at four tables and covers were placed for twenty-four.

Bridge Luncheon.

Mrs. G. Stier was hostess at a beautifully appointed luncheon today at her home on West Farnam. For luncheon the guests were seated at one large table in the dining room and covers were placed for sixteen. After luncheon bridge was played.

Dinner Party.

Mrs. and Mrs. H. W. Dunn will give a dinner party Saturday evening at their home. Miss Ward roses and pink candles and shades will form the decorations. Covers will be placed for twelve.

Afternoon Bridge Luncheon.

Complimentary to Miss Ruth Miller of Belmont, Miss., and to Miss Dorothy Miller, Miss Carolyn Backshaw entertained informally at bridge this afternoon. Four tables were placed for twenty-four.

In House of Guest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller entertained at dinner Sunday evening in honor of Mrs. L. S. Dawson of Rock Island, Ill., who is their house guest. Mrs. Dawson is a summer resident of Omaha. The decorations were suggestions of George Washington's birthday and a mound of pink roses, sweet peas and lilies of the valley formed

This Washer Must Pay for itself.

A WASHER had to sell me a house over. He said I was too poor to buy and nothing I could do would get him to take it back. I didn't know anything about it, so I went to see Mr. Miller, my real estate agent. He said "all right, but you must have a good record in your business or else you won't get another one." I said "I have a good record in my business, but I don't know what to do now." He said "Well, we can't help you, but we can give you a loan to buy another house." I said "I have no money." He said "We can't help you, but we can give you a loan to buy another house." I said "I have no money." He said "Well, we can't help you, but we can give you a loan to buy another house."
